

President

Algonquin College of Applied Arts and Technology is one of Canada's leading degree granting, research intensive, publicly funded colleges. Headquartered in Ottawa, and with campuses in Ottawa, Perth, and Pembroke, Algonquin has 20,000 full-time students and 36,000 continuing education registrations, a major and growing on-line presence, and partnerships across the globe.

Algonquin College's guiding principle is student success. Ask students why they chose Algonquin, and they will quickly tell you it's the hands-on skills and career focus they gain from learning in realistic lab and classroom environments. This is demonstrated through the quality of the College's applied education and training and commitment to leverage technology, achieve financial, social and environmental sustainability, and support and empower students, employees and alumni.

Reporting to and working collaboratively with the Board of Governors, the President is committed to Algonquin's vision of an exemplary polytechnic institution for applied education and training in a global, digital environment. Charged with delivering and enhancing the College's new Strategic Plan 2012-17, the President embodies the College values of Caring, Learning, Integrity and Respect, while providing executive leadership to the College's faculty, and administrative and support staff to ensure that both the students and the College are successful.

As a well-qualified candidate, you have several attributes that will be critical or highly desirable in this position, including: Senior executive experience, a passion for education, the ability to create an inspiring yet realistic vision, a strategic approach, excellent communications skills, the ability to lead a highly capable executive team, knowledge of how to secure funding from many sources, and a track record of having managed a complex entity successfully. You understand the uniqueness of working with a unionized workforce. You can make difficult decisions when necessary to ensure the College is fiscally well-managed. Your collaborative approach will serve you well in working with students, faculty, staff, executives, alumni, donors, government officials, employers, community stakeholders and the Board of Governors to achieve mutual goals.
