President and Vice Chancellor

Celebrating its centenary in 2010, St. Thomas University is an undergraduate, liberal arts institution whose roots are in the faith and tradition of the Roman Catholic Church. With an enrolment of 2,400, its students graduate with Bachelor of Arts, Applied Arts, Education and Social Work degrees. The 120+ faculty members are distinguished teachers, researchers and scholars, and the university holds three Canada Research Chairs. Located in Fredericton, New Brunswick, St. Thomas University is proud to offer its students small classes, engaged classmates, and teachers that are second-to-none.

The President and Vice Chancellor of St. Thomas University will bring an impressive record of success as a scholar, researcher and academic administrator. The President will demonstrate a passion for liberal arts education, a respect for the history and tradition of the University and the strategic vision and ability to guide the University forward sustainably. The President will be a collegial leader working within the context of a unionized campus. A relationship builder and inspirational communicator, the President will foster connections and partnerships within and around the University to enhance the student experience, create a collaborative and respectful culture and expand the network of friends and donors of St. Thomas University. As the University's senior administrator, the President will work effectively within a bicameral university governance structure, bring strong management acumen and lead with the right balance of directing, decision-making, consulting and consensus building.

The St. Thomas University search committee will begin its review of candidates in September 2010 and will continue until the position is successfully filled. Candidates are asked to submit a curriculum vitae, a letter of introduction that addresses their strengths and qualifications related to this position, and the names of at least three referees. All documentation will be treated confidentially and should be directed to:
