

Dean, School of Business

It's an exciting time for Assiniboine Community College and for our School of Business. We're growing—not only with respect to student enrolment, but also through new programs and new learning spaces across our campuses.

Reporting to the Vice-President, Academic, the Dean is a senior leader at Assiniboine, responsible for shaping and ushering in the next chapter of business education and industry partnership at our college. As the Dean, you will continue the growth by developing and advancing the school's academic plans, including the applied research strategy. You will carry responsibility for creating and sharing college-wide strategies and action plans, while ensuring effective communication of these plans throughout the college community. You will leave your mark and make a difference by leading the next generation of development.

This position is based on campus in Brandon and requires travel throughout the province as needed. This competition will remain open until the position is filled. Salary range: $110,944 to $141,602.
