

Nipissing University

Dean, Education and Professional Studies

Nipissing University invites applications for the position of Dean of Education and Professional Studies. As one of four Deans reporting to the Provost and Vice-President, Academic and Research, the Dean of Education and Professional Studies is a key member of the University's senior management team and will provide academic and administrative leadership by ensuring high quality and relevant education consistent with the University's mission. The incumbent must demonstrate a commitment to working with students that reflects the student-centered focus of Nipissing University.

As the Dean of Education and Professional Studies at Nipissing University, the incumbent will have the opportunity to lead the development of education and professional studies programming and research at a small university that has consistently been ranked by students and graduates as providing the best undergraduate educational experience in Canada.

Nipissing University is a young and dynamic, primarily undergraduate institution. The Faculty of Education and Professional Studies comprises of the following schools: Business, Criminology and Criminal Justice, Education, Nursing, Social Work, and Physical and Health Education. Through the integration of teaching, research, professional internships, service and global experiences in undergraduate, professional and selected graduate areas, Nipissing University offers a student experience that is highly rated in national and international surveys of student engagement and quality of education.

Nipissing University is located in the City of North Bay, Ontario (population 52,000), a comfortable three-hour drive from Toronto and four hours from Ottawa. North Bay is situated on beautiful Lake Nipissing and is served by a regional airport. The University enjoys a unique relationship with Canadore College and provides a model for collaboration that serves as an example for institutions across Canada.

The successful candidate will have a minimum of a doctoral degree in a relevant field, and at least five years of progressively responsible management experience in a university environment. Demonstrated accomplishments in a senior university administrative role, with superior analytical, organizational, managerial, and leadership skills, with the ability to see the bigger picture for the long-term benefit of the Faculty and the University, is required. The successful candidate will also have an awareness and appreciation of the different disciplines within the Faculty and an understanding of their respective strengths, issues and needs, combined with the ability to effectively leverage opportunities for interdisciplinary collaboration across the University.

For more information about Nipissing University and a detailed position description, please visit www.nipissingu.ca Consideration of candidates will begin on March 12, 2020, and will continue until an appointment is made. A letter of application, curriculum vitae, and three letters of recommendation should be submitted, in confidence, to the address shown below.

Jenny Mackie
Director, Human Resources
Nipissing University
100 College Drive
North Bay, ON P1B 8L7
jobs@nipissingu.ca

The Selection Committee would like to thank all applicants for their interest in this position; however, only those selected for interviews will be contacted.

Nipissing University is committed to employment equity and strongly encourages applications, which include self-identification in a covering letter from, Indigenous persons, women, persons with disabilities, persons who identify as LGBTQ2+ and visible minorities. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority.

Nipissing University is an inclusive employer and will provide accommodation in accordance with the Ontario Human Rights Code.