

Queen's University, Smith School of Business Tenure Track Position in Strategy and Organizations

Smith School of Business at Queen's University (Kingston, Ontario, Canada) invites applications for a tenure-track position in Strategy and Organizations, at the rank of Assistant Professor, with a preferred starting date of July 1, 2021. In the instance that an exceptional candidate is identified, a tenured appointment at the rank of Associate Professor may be considered.

Qualifications

Candidates must have a PhD or equivalent degree completed at the start of the appointment. The main criteria for selection are academic and teaching excellence. The successful candidate will exhibit strong potential for innovative and high-quality scholarly research leading to top-tier peer-assessed publications and the securing of external research funding, as well as strong potential for outstanding teaching contributions at both undergraduate and graduate levels, and an ongoing commitment to academic and pedagogical excellence in support of the School's various public and private programs. The successful candidate will be required to make contributions through service to the School, the University, and/or the broader academic community. In addition to the above, a successful candidate for an Associate Professor level position will have a strong track record of publications in top management journals, and a strong teaching record.

Strategy and Organizations Area Group

The Strategy and Organizations Area Group is comprised of strong researchers with expertise in alliance networks, competitive dynamics, corporate social responsibility, institutions and organizations, social entrepreneurship and innovation. Our faculty regularly publish in the top management journals such as Academy of Management Journal, Academy of Management Review, Academy of Management Annals, Journal of Management, Organization Science, and Strategic Management Journal.

The City

The University is situated on the traditional territories of the Haudenosaunee and Anishinaabe, in historic Kingston on the shores of Lake Ontario. Kingston's residents enjoy an outstanding quality of life with a wide range of cultural and creative opportunities. Visit Inclusive Queen's for information on equity, diversity and inclusion resources and initiatives.

Kingston is a unique Canadian city of 125,000 with a distinct blend of history, recreation, industry and learning. Situated on the shores of Lake Ontario, Kingston offers unique waterfront living with many recreational opportunities. It is within a two-and-a-half hour drive (two-hour train ride) to the commercial, industrial and political hubs of Toronto, Montreal, and the nation's capital, Ottawa, and a thirty minute drive from the international bridge linking Ontario and upstate New York. The city is also the origin of the historic Rideau Canal system –a UNESCO International Heritage site.

How to Apply

The effective date of the appointment will be July 1, 2021, but is flexible.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is committed to employment equity, diversity, and inclusion in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during the interview process, please contact: Roshan Udit at rgu1@queensu.ca. Academic staff at Queen's University are governed by a Collective Agreement between the University and the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA), which is posted at <http://queensu.ca/facultyrelations/faculty-librarians-and-archivists/collective-agreement> and at <http://www.qufa.ca>.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens / permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship; however, all applications must include one of the following statements: "I am a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada"; OR, "I am not a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada". Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete. Your application cover letter must include one of these two citizenship statements.

In addition, the impact of certain circumstances that may legitimately affect a nominee's record of research achievement will be given careful consideration when assessing the nominee's research productivity. Candidates are encouraged to provide any relevant information about their experience and/or career interruptions.

Applicants should submit:

- A cover letter
(including one of the two statements regarding Canadian citizenship/permanent resident status specified in the previous paragraph)
- A current Curriculum Vitae
(including a list of publications)
- Evidence of research, including a job market paper
- A Statement of teaching interests and experience (including course outlines and evaluations if available)
- Three letters of reference

Deadline for applications: October 1, 2020

The position will remain open until filled.
