

Ryerson University, Vice-President Administration and Operations

Ryerson University is a distinctly urban university with a focus on innovation and entrepreneurship. It is guided by a bold Academic Plan, an ambitious research agenda, and a Master Plan to revitalize the campus and surrounding neighbourhood and reshape the downtown core of Toronto. Ryerson has a mission to serve societal need and a long-standing commitment to engaging its community. It is the most applied-to university in Ontario relative to available spaces and its reputation with business and community leaders continues to rise. It is clearly a university on the move.

Reporting to the President, the Vice-President, Administration and Operations is a key member of, and contributor to, Ryerson's executive leadership team. The Vice-President leads, directs and develops the strategic and operational activities of the University related to the organization's facilities management and development, human resources, information technology services, integrated risk management, internal audit, and business services. He/she establishes and develops its relationship with a variety of outside institutions and with municipal and provincial officials. The office of the Vice-President is also responsible for the University's relations with contacts who intend to enter into business relationships with the University.

The ideal candidate is a business minded leader who embodies what Ryerson is known for: innovation and entrepreneurship, leadership and best practices, nimbleness and responsiveness, and equity, diversity and inclusion. You must have successful leadership experience in administrative and operations functions within complex organizations. Expertise in infrastructure, human resources, business operations and/or finance would be a considerable asset. Strong people management skills, an ability to build strong partnerships with both internal and external stakeholders, and an ease communicating with various groups are also required.

Ryerson University is strongly committed to fostering diversity within our community. We welcome those who have demonstrated a commitment to upholding the values of equity, diversity, and inclusion and will assist us to expand our capacity for diversity in the broadest sense. All are encouraged to apply, including but not limited to women, racialized people, Indigenous peoples, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons. Please note that all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply but applications from Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

To explore this key leadership position at Ryerson University further, please contact Jane Griffith or Amanda Bugatto at amanda.bugatto@odgersberndtson.com or submit your resume and related information in confidence online at <http://www.odgersberndtson.com/en/careers/14139>

Ryerson University is an equal opportunity employer. In accordance with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005, upon request, accommodation will be provided by both Odgers Berndtson and Ryerson University throughout the recruitment, selection and/or assessment process to applicants with disabilities.