

L'Université de Montréal et de votre carrière.

Université de Montréal has more than 10,000 employees and is one of Canada's Top 100 Employers.

UdeM has Canada's 2nd largest student body and ranks among the top five Canadian research universities, receiving more than half a billion dollars in research funding every year.

Through the achievements of the members of its community, UdeM participates in building today's and tomorrow's world.

Assistant Professor in the field of organized crime and criminal networks

School of Criminology

Faculté des arts et des sciences

Job description

The School of Criminology is inviting applications for a full-time adjunct faculty position in the field of organized crime and criminal networks. The School of Criminology of the University of Montreal represents the largest department of criminology in the Francophonie (<https://crim.umontreal.ca/accueil/>). The programs offered by the School at undergraduate, graduate and PhD levels are recognized internationally. Many are unique in Canada, and all stand out for a quality of teaching that makes room for both European and American influences.

Responsibilities

The appointed candidate will be expected to teach undergraduate and graduate courses, supervise graduate students, be active in research, publishing, and the diffusion of knowledge, and contribute to the activities of the University.

Requirements

- » Ph. D in criminology or a related discipline (candidates completing dissertation will also be considered);
- » Strong research record;
- » Demonstrated ability to provide high quality university teaching;
- » An adequate knowledge of the French written and spoken language or a strong commitment to mastering the proficiency level required, in accordance to Université de Montréal's Language Policy. An institutional learning support program is offered to all professors wishing to learn French or improve their communication skills.

How to submit your application

The application file should contain the following documents:

- » A cover letter; Application must include in the cover letter one of the following statements: "I am a citizen/ permanent resident of Canada." or "I am not a citizen or permanent resident of Canada."
- » Your curriculum vitae;
- » Recent publications or research papers;
- » Your teaching philosophy (maximum one page);
- » A presentation of your research program (maximum two pages);
- » Three letters of recommendation are also to be sent directly to the department chair by the referees;
- » For people whose doctorate has not been obtained, a document specifying the state of progress of the thesis accompanied by a timeline specifying the date of the final submission will be required.

Application file and letters of recommendation must be sent by email before December 1st, 2021 inclusively to:

Samuel Tanner, Chair
School of Criminology
Faculté des arts et sciences – Université de Montréal
Phone: +1(514) 343-6111, extension 40567
Email: criminologie@umontreal.ca
Website: <https://crim.umontreal.ca/accueil/>

Additional information about the position

| | |
|-----------------------------|---|
| Reference number | FAS 09-21/11 |
| Application deadline | Until December 1 st , 2021 inclusively |
| Salary | Université de Montréal offers competitive salaries and a full range of benefits |
| Starting date | As of June 1 st , 2022 |

Université de Montréal is strongly committed to fostering diversity and inclusion. Through its Equal Access Employment Program (EAEP), UdeM invites applications from women, Aboriginal people, visible and ethnic minorities, as well as persons with disabilities. We will –confidentially – adapt our recruitment mechanisms to the specific needs of people with disabilities who request it.

UdeM embraces a broad and inclusive definition of diversity that goes beyond applicable laws, and therefore encourages all qualified individuals to apply, regardless of their characteristics. However, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, priority will be given to Canadians and permanent residents.

In order to measure the impact of its equity, diversity and inclusion actions, UdeM is collecting data on applicants identifying themselves with one of the groups targeted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Act, namely women, Aboriginal people, visible minorities, ethnic minorities and people with limitations. To this end, we thank you for completing this self-identification questionnaire. The information you provide through this form is strictly confidential and will be shared only with those responsible for the UdeM EAEP. If you wish, you may also indicate that you belong to one of the targeted groups in your cover letter, which will be reviewed by the selection committee and the assembly of peers.

Université de Montréal's application process allows all members of the Professor's Assembly to review the application files submitted. If you wish to keep your application confidential until the shortlist is established, please mention it in your application.

The University of Montreal and of the world.