

Dean,
College of Arts and Science
Saskatoon, SK

The University of Saskatchewan's main campus is situated on Treaty 6 Territory and the Homeland of the Métis. We pay our respects to the First Nations and Métis ancestors of this place and reaffirm our relationship with one another.

Located in the vibrant city of Saskatoon, the University of Saskatchewan (USask) is one of Canada's top research-intensive medical doctoral universities and home to world-leading research of global importance. More than 25,000 students from more than 125 countries study at USask. 130+ academic programs are offered through the university's 13 schools and colleges, three graduate schools, and six federated colleges.

The College of Arts and Science (the College) is the largest academic unit in the university. With more than 40 percent of the total student population at USask, the College is comprised of 21 departments and over 60 programs, offering courses that span the humanities, social sciences, sciences, and fine arts. The College has over 300+ faculty members and provides approximately half of the undergraduate courses offered at USask.

Reporting to the Provost and Vice-President Academic, the Dean, College of Arts and Science provides strategic and innovative leadership to the College as its chief academic and administrative officer. As a member of the senior leadership team, the Dean works in collaboration with academic leaders, senior administrators and staff, and other key stakeholders to implement and proactively advance the University of Saskatchewan's Strategic Plan and objectives promoting and advancing the College within USask and with key partners regionally, nationally, and internationally

As the successful candidate, you bring an internationally recognized track record as an educator and researcher, with 3 to 5 years of experience in an academic leadership role such as department chair, associate dean, dean and/or equivalent experience in the post-secondary sector. You are committed to the principles of EDI, and Indigenization and decolonization and are eligible for an academic appointment as a Full Professor in the Faculty of Arts and Science.

The University believes equity, diversity, and inclusion strengthen the community and enhance excellence, innovation, and creativity. USask is dedicated to recruiting individuals who will enrich their work and learning environments. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. We are committed to providing accommodations to those with a disability or medical necessity. If you require an accommodation in order to participate in the recruitment process, please notify us and we will work together on the accommodation request.

To submit your CV and letter of introduction for consideration, in confidence, please <https://mbexec.com/usask-deancas/>. For more information, please contact Kate Klarich at kklarich@mbexec.ca or Alex Verdecchia at averdecchia@mbexec.ca