

Dean, College of Medicine
Saskatoon, SK

The University of Saskatchewan's main campus is situated on Treaty 6 Territory and the Homeland of the Métis. We pay our respects to the First Nations and Métis ancestors of this place and reaffirm our relationship with one another.

Located in the vibrant city of Saskatoon, the University of Saskatchewan (USask) is one of Canada's top research-intensive medical doctoral universities and home to world-leading research of global importance. More than 26,000 students from more than 125 countries study at USask. 130+ academic programs are offered through the university's two campuses, 13 schools and colleges and four graduate schools.

The College of Medicine (the College) is home to 2,100+ learners including medical students, physical therapy students, biomedical students, residents, master's and Ph.D. candidates. Additionally, there are 2,000 faculty members and more than 700 staff throughout the province that support 15 departments, three divisions, and a School of Rehabilitation Science.

Reporting to the Provost and Vice-President Academic, the Dean, College of Medicine provides strategic and innovative leadership to the College as its chief academic and administrative officer. As a member of the senior leadership team, the Dean works in collaboration with academic leaders, senior administrators and staff, and other key stakeholders to implement and proactively advance the University of Saskatchewan's Strategic Plan and objectives promoting and advancing the College within USask and with key partners regionally, nationally, and internationally.

Candidates with an M.D. and an exemplary academic record as an educator and researcher are invited to apply. An advanced degree would be an asset. Prior performance at the senior academic level is required with preference given to candidates holding the rank of full professor. The successful candidate will have demonstrated administrative and leadership experience with superior relationship-building skills. Demonstrated success in developing and implementing a vision and leading people to achieve exemplary performance and outcomes is essential.

The University believes equity, diversity, and inclusion strengthen the community and enhance excellence, innovation, and creativity. USask is dedicated to recruiting individuals who will enrich their work and learning environments. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. We are committed to providing accommodations to those with a disability or medical necessity. If you require an accommodation in order to participate in the recruitment process, please notify us and we will work together on the accommodation request.

To submit your CV and letter of introduction for consideration, in confidence, please visit <https://mbexec.com/usask-dean-medicine/>. For more information, please contact Alina Ivanets at aivanets@mbexec.ca or Alex Verdecchia at averdecchia@mbexec.ca.

Review of candidates will begin early October. The position remains open until filled.