

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

Vice-Provost,
Students and Learning
Saskatoon, SK

The University of Saskatchewan's main campus is situated on Treaty 6 Territory and the Homeland of the Métis. We pay our respects to the First Nations and Métis ancestors of this place and reaffirm our relationship with one another.

Located in the vibrant city of Saskatoon, the University of Saskatchewan (USask) is one of Canada's top research-intensive, medical-doctoral universities and home to world-leading research of global importance. More than 25,000 students from 125+ countries study at USask. 130+ academic programs are offered through the university's 13 schools and colleges, three graduate schools, and six federated colleges.

Reporting directly to the Provost and Vice-President, Academic, the Vice-Provost, Students and Learning (VPSL) is a senior academic administrator and leads university-wide initiatives critical to the teaching and learning mission of USask. This includes uplifting Indigenization, oversight of academic integrity and regulations, ensuring the highest quality programs and courses, and ensuring excellent, high-value, responsive services across campus. The VPSL provides leadership to a team of approximately 280 consisting of directors, managers, administrative and professional staff, and student leaders.

As the successful candidate, you are a senior academic with an established reputation as a teacher-scholar, have a doctorate, have a minimum of 10 years progressive experience in an academic environment, and recent experience at a senior leadership level with student affairs and academic program responsibilities. You are committed to the principles of EDI and Indigenization and decolonization and are eligible for an academic appointment as an associate or full professor.

The University believes equity, diversity, and inclusion strengthen the community and enhance excellence, innovation, and creativity. USask is dedicated to recruiting individuals who will enrich their work and learning environments. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. We are committed to providing accommodations to those with a disability or medical necessity. If you require an accommodation in order to participate in the recruitment process, please notify us and we will work together on the accommodation request.
