Reports To:	Associate Vice President, Office of the VPRI
Jobs Reporting:	Senior Manager, Research Equity, Project Manager, Equity Initiatives (33115), Manager, Indigenous Initiatives (52646), Project Manager Indigenous Initiatives
Salary Grade:	USG 15
Effective Date:	September 2021

Primary Purpose

The Director, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) in Research, Internationalization and Commercialization is responsible for identifying, developing, and implementing strategies to meet the equity, diversity and inclusivity (EDI) objectives of the University of Waterloo relating to research, as well as international and commercialization activities within the portfolio of the Vice President Research and International (VPRI). Reporting to an AVP Research and International, the Director leads the Office of VPRI EDI team and is responsible for advancing EDI issues and effecting change across research, international and commercialization activities as they relate to the faculty, research staff and trainee experience at an institutional level. This includes oversight of the EDI requirements of external research sponsors, including lead responsibility for implementation and ongoing monitoring of the Canada Research Chairs' Equity Action Plan (EAP). The incumbent will also work closely with the Chair of the Research Equity, Diversity and Inclusivity (REDI) Council to plan, implement and monitor initiatives arising from the Council and with the Office of Human Rights, Equity and Inclusion. The Director serves on VPRI and University committees and groups as an advisor and resource providing leadership on EDI initiatives and oversees the development and delivery of related training programs and workshops for faculty and researchers. The Director also provides leadership on EDI initiatives to all units within the VPRI portfolio including Waterloo International and the University Research Centres.

The University is committed to implementing the Calls to Action framed by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission. We acknowledge that we live and work on the traditional territory of the Neutral, Anishinaabeg and Haudenosaunee peoples. The University of Waterloo is situated on the Haldimand Tract, the land granted to the Six Nations that includes six miles on each side of the Grand River.

The University is a leader in the education of global citizens and values the diverse and intersectional identities of its students, faculty, and staff. The University regards equity and diversity as an integral part of academic excellence and is committed to accessibility for all employees. The University seeks applicants who embrace our values of equity, anti-racism, and inclusion.

The University encourages applications from, and priority in selection will be given to, candidates who have been historically disadvantaged and marginalized, including applicants who identify as First Nations, Métis and/or Inuit, Black, racialized, persons with disabilities, women and/or 2SLGBTQIA+ people.

The selection process for this particular position will follow the provisions for a special program as described by the Ontario Human Rights Commission in order to address the underrepresentation of
