ASSOCIATE VICE-PRESIDENT, Operations

The University of Windsor acknowledges that our campus sits on the traditional territory of the Three Fires Confederacy of First Nations, which includes the Ojibwa, the Odawa, and the Potawatomi. We respect the longstanding relationships with First Nations people in this place in the 100-mile Windsor-Essex peninsula and the straits – les détroits – of Detroit.

The University of Windsor is seeking a highly motivated, dynamic, and dedicated individual to provide strategic leadership to its operations teams, advise on best practices, implement and evaluate measures for asset optimization and risk mitigation, and contribute to the future sustainability of the University of Windsor.

Position Description

Reporting to the Vice-President, Finance & Operations, the Associate Vice-President, Operations (AVPO) will provide leadership and management for various operational elements of the institution, including facility operations and maintenance (including Maintenance, Physical Plant, Energy Conservation (Chief Operating Engineer), Custodial, Housekeeping & Grounds), capital projects, environmental sustainability, campus safety, and ancillary operations (including Food Services, Campus Card, Bookstore, Print Shop and Parking Services). A critical strategic position for the University, the AVPO is accountable for the planning, implementation, administration, coordination, and evaluation of the University's operational functions. As the chief physical resources officer, it is responsible for the strategy, operations, capital development and renewal of the University's campuses, centres, and institutes. The AVPO provides authority for the development and implementation of the University's operational (facility operations, capital projects, campus safety, ancillary operations, etc.) policies and procedures and plays an important role in providing integrated planning and management support to the University's strategic direction.

The AVPO is an inclusive and transformational leader who can lead a large and diverse team, while navigating a complex organization. Key to this role is fostering innovation and asset optimization, leading change, and managing risk in alignment with the University's values and priorities. The AVPO will use benchmarking and best practices to improve processes and systems, setting performance metrics, and continually evaluating against them. The AVPO is a respected and effective communicator and advisor, with demonstrated experience working closely with senior leadership, Deans, and the Board of Governors to advance the operational services within the institution.
