Director of Ian O. Ihnatowycz Institute for Leadership

The Ivey Business School at Western University seeks candidates for the role of Director of the Ian O. Ihnatowycz Institute for Leadership. Applicants will be considered for a Tenured appointment at the rank of Associate or Full Professor. The position is available to begin in July 2022, although alternate start dates may be arranged. The initial appointment for the role of Director will be a five-year term with the potential for renewal.

The Institute’s mission is to influence individuals, organizations, and societies through the creation and application of new knowledge on leader character. It aims to:

- be a globally leading Institute for research, teaching and outreach for awareness, assessment and development of leader character;
- elevate the importance of character alongside competence in the practice of leadership; and
- develop global citizens who have strength of character, strive to make a difference and contribute to the flourishing of their teams, organizations, communities, and societies.

The Institute is integral to the Ivey Business School’s mission “to develop business leaders who think globally, act strategically, and contribute to the societies within which they operate.” It plays a pivotal role in bringing together an array of leadership-related activities within the School as well as engaging external contributors from industry and academia.

The successful candidate will have a background that balances academic research and innovation in programming with a successful track record in stakeholder outreach and engagement. As an ambassador and advocate promoting the values of leadership character and leadership across the Ivey Business School, the Director will support thought leadership and research funding, leadership curriculum and partnerships to enhance leader character programming and play a central role in supporting the School’s and University’s commitment to develop future leaders for the public, private, and not for profit sectors. In addition to advancing leader character, the Director should consider other complementary areas of research that will broaden the Institute’s portfolio of research. The Director will bring excellence and innovation to the position and be a respected mentor, builder and collaborative team member, comfortable with being a champion for the mission of the Institute in a complex environment. Along with in-depth knowledge of the leading research in leader character and leadership, the Director will be a visionary leader with outstanding communication and relationship-building skills who will share their knowledge with faculty in all program areas and across Western University.

Tenured Appointment: Applicants for a tenured appointment at the rank of Associate or Full Professor will hold a PhD or other earned Doctorate in organizational behavior, psychology, strategy, or related fields. The successful candidate will be an internationally recognized scholar in their field of research, as demonstrated by publications in the highest quality academic journals, an active continuing research program, external research funding, scholarly awards, and invited presentations at seminars and major conferences. Candidates should provide evidence of strong teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Experience with the case teaching method is preferred.

Application Procedure: The Recruitment Committee is being assisted in its search by Katherine Frank and Mark Gillis from Knightsbridge Robertson Surrette (KBRS). Applicants are encouraged to submit the following materials to www.kbrs.ca/Career/14898:
